

In the City Council
City of Lodi
Lodi, California

RESOLUTION NO. 2001

WHEREAS, due to the increase in various forms of literature to be obtained on the market which portrays horror, sex, sensationalism, depravity, crime and licentiousness, this Council has been requested to take steps to control or prohibit the sale and distribution of such literature, and

WHEREAS, this Council is informed that a bill to control or prohibit the sale and distribution of such obscene and lurid literature is being presented to the Legislature for adoption, and

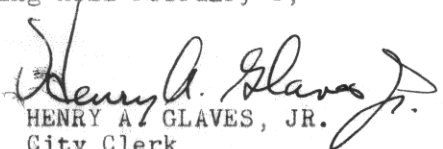

WHEREAS, this City Council believes that state-wide control of this problem may be necessary in order to combat the evil influence which is available to our children on many bookstands in most every city.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Council of the City of Lodi as follows:

1. The Legislature of the State of California is hereby urged and requested to pass proper legislation to prohibit or control the sale of all literature within the State portraying and sensationalizing horror, sex, depravity, crime, obscenity and licentiousness, particularly where it comes into the hands of children.

2. The City Clerk is hereby directed to forward copies of this resolution to our representatives in the Legislature.

CERTIFIED to be a full, true and correct
copy of Resolution No. 2001 of the City Council of the City of Lodi as passed and adopted in regular meeting held February 6, 1957.

HENRY A. GLAVES, JR.
City Clerk
